This is, therefore, to require the said J. L. Craft and the other defendants first named herein, and all non-resident and unknown owners of the real estate hereinbefore particularly described and set forth, as well as any and all persons claiming any interest whatsoever therein, to appear on or before the first Monday in November next, it being a Rule Day, before the Clerk and Master of said Court, at his office in Johnson City, and show cause, if any they can, why said real estate should not be condemned and sold on a credit of not less than six months, nor more than two years and in bar of the equity of redemption, to satisfy and discharge the lien of said state of Tennessee and County of Washington, for the taxes due thereon for the years as hereinbefore specified, and do whatever else may be necessary to protect their interests in the premises; and in default of such appearance and defence, the said bill will be taken for confessed and the cause set for hearing ex parte as to them.

It is ordered that this notice be published for four consecutive weeks in THE COMET, a newspaper published in Johnson City, in the county and state aforesaid

This October 5th, 1893.

BY C. W. HODGE, D C and M.

W. F. YOUNG, C. and M.

Washington Notes.

The Breckinridge-Poland case has been placed on the trial calendar of the October term.

The public debt statement, issued to-day, shows an increase in the public debt of September of $487,286. The net cash balance in treasury is $106,875,633.

Members of the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds say that the understanding is that the Senate Committee will not report any public building bills to this Congress.

Mgr. Satollo has officially stated that Archbishop Kenrick, of St. Louis, has not been deposed. The appointment of Archbishop Kann as coadjutor has been made with the consent of Archbishop Kenrick.

Sister Loretto, director of the Georgetown Convent, died this morning. She has been connected with the convent for fifty years, and instructed many of the women of the country who have since become prominent, among them Harriet Lane Johnson and Mrs. Potter Palmer.

The Finance Committee of the Senate and the Ways and Means Committee of the House will meet to-morrow and it is understood that both committees will take up and probably dispose of the petition of the foreign exhibitors at the World's Fair for a one-half reduction of duty on goods sold at the fair, after the passage of the bill.

President Cleveland has signed a proclamation setting apart a tract of land in Oregon as a forest reservation. The reservation will be known as "Cascade Forest Reservation," and extends from the Columbia River 200 miles southward, being about twenty miles in width. Hereafter no settlement will be allowed within the boundaries.

The uprising among the Yuma Indians in Southwestern California has been put down, and Miguel, the renegade chief, and several of his followers are under arrest. This puts an end to all the trouble on the Yuma reservation. This information was telegraphed to the Interior Department to-day by Indian Agent Estradillo.

Information has reached Navy De partment that the Cruiser Newark, which left New York City several days ago for Rio de Janeiro, has arrived at Barbadoes. She will leave there as promptly as possible for Rio and ought to arrive there in two weeks. The department is also informed that the Baltimore has arrived at Algiers.

Although the time has not been definitely fixed it is understood that within a few days the President and Mrs. Cleveland will take up their quarters in their country home on Woodley Lane Road, in the suburbs of Washington. Preparations have been in progress there to receive them. The President and his wife look forward with much pleasure to spending the autumn days in the country.

Frank R. Stockton has written the history of "How I Wrote The Lady, or the Tiger?" for the next issue of The Ladies' Journal, and tells what came of the writing of the famous story and the condition of his own mind, at the present issue, of the correct solution of the problem whether the lady or the tiger came out of the opened door.

A Big Cut In The Rates To Chicago.

The World's Fair is rapidly drawing to a close, and in order to give everyone a chance to visit it, the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway has made a big reduction in the rates. Excursion tickets to Chicago and return are now on sale at one fare for the round trip, good to return within fifteen days. This is the lowest rate yet offered. The N., C. & St. L. is the short line, and has four fast trains daily, making the quickest time ever made between the South and Chicago. Solid vestibule train "Chicago Limited" Atlanta to Chicago, runs by Evansville route, and through sleeper, Atlanta to Chicago on Train No. 4, via Nashville, Louisville and Penn. Lines. Apply to nearest N., C. & St. L. Agent. 485-31.
